Arizona Department of Public Safety Arrest Homicide Suspect Wanted out of Las Vegas

On August 13, 2008, Arizona Department of Public Safety (DPS) received information from the Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department of an attempt to locate for a possible homicide suspect that may be traveling south from the Hoover Dam area on U.S. 93 into Arizona. The suspect was identified as Roger Randolph, age 26, of Nevada, who was being sought in connection with a homicide that was committed in Las Vegas. The suspect was reported to be driving a 1997 Oldsmobile Cierra passenger vehicle.

At approximately 4:10 p.m., DPS Officers located the suspect vehicle which was traveling southbound on U.S. 93. At approximately Milepost 55, which is approximately 14 miles north of Kingman, where DPS Officers conducted a high risk traffic stop and the suspect, Roger Randolph was taken into custody without incident.

He was booked into the Mohave County Jail, in Kingman, Arizona, on the charge of Warrant-Fugitive from Justice for Homicide and is being held awaiting extradition back to Nevada.
